

Labex MME-DII

Research Chair in Economics

ESSEC Business School

The Department of Economics at ESSEC Business School invites applications for a Research Chair, based at the Cergy campus in Greater Paris. Applicants must have an excellent record in their field of research. Consistent with the expectations of chaired professorships, the successful candidate will be expected to provide both research and service leadership to the department. The position is supported by the LabEx MME-DII and comes with a reduced teaching load (50 hours per year for the first four years) and a substantial research budget.

ESSEC Business School is one of Europe's leading business schools, with campuses in Paris, Singapore, and Rabat (Morocco). It offers bachelors, masters, MBA, executive MBA, and PhD programs in economics and management. Financial Times ranks ESSEC's "Grande Ecole" program 3rd best Masters in Management worldwide in the last two years.

Candidates should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, and names and contact information for three references. Review of applications will continue until the position is filled.
