

ESSEC Business School, Paris Campus

Assistant/Associate Professor

The Finance Department of the ESSEC Business School is opening positions for research professors at the assistant (tenure track) or associate level in its Paris (Cergy) campus, starting September 01, 2023, or on a mutually agreed date.

JOB QUALIFICATIONS: The Department invites applications from candidates in all fields. Tenure track candidates are expected to complete their Ph.D. at the latest in September 2023 and should exhibit potential for excellence in research. They are offered reduced teaching load during the tenure clock over six years.

ABOUT THE SCHOOL: ESSEC is a French "Grande Ecole" with campuses in the Paris metropolitan area and in Singapore. ESSEC offers graduate level training in finance and business administration and was the first AACSB accredited business school outside the United States and Canada. Courses are taught in English. More information on ESSEC can be found at <http://www.essec.edu>. The Finance Department has a total of 19 permanent faculty members and is strongly dedicated to research. It offers courses at all levels (undergraduate, master and Ph.D.).

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: Interested candidates should complete their application package (cover letter, a complete vita, sample copies of their research and at least three letters of recommendation) at <https://econjobmarket.org/positions/8723>, by December 1, 2022.

All inquiries regarding this job posting should be addressed to finance@essec.edu.
