By joining ESSEC Business School, you are part of ESSEC Alumni : an exceptional graduates network and a community helping its members all around the world. The association aims at supporting alumni from the moment they join ESSEC and in every step of their career, bringing the community together around professional and personal interests, helping the school to promote the ESSEC brand. ESSEC Alumni is now on the campuses (Cergy, la Défense and Singapore) to organize meetings between students and graduates, help to find a job or an internship through the network and propose services dedicated to students.
