

In order to help foreign students in their search for financing studies, the Office of Student Affairs has gathered some information on possible scholarships. These can be divided into different categories, depending on whether or not you have been definitely admitted to one of the ESSEC programs. Other criteria include nationality, proficiency in French, the purpose of your study project, your merit, revenues, etc., and above all they can be categorized by their amount.

You will find below a list, although not exhaustive, of scholarships and fundings available per country or area. Since they exist in a limited number, while the number of applicants has been increasing every year, the Office of Student Affairs strongly recommends that you consider additional sources for financing your stay in France.

1. Before admission into one of the ESSEC programs

Scholarships from the French cultural services

Scholarships from the “Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie”

2. After admission into one of the ESSEC programs

Eiffel Scholarships

Company Scholarships

ESSEC Social Scholarships

Mobility Scholarships

European Community Schemes

Scholarships and Funds in Europe

Scholarships and Funds in Australia, Asia and Africa

Scholarships and Funds in America

Other scholarships and funds

1. Before admission into one of the ESSEC programs

1.1. Scholarships from the French cultural services

You should inquire at the French cultural service in your country of origin about individual scholarships. Cultural services are indeed authorized to grant a certain number of scholarships each year.

For additional information, see: http://www.cnous.fr/_vie_47.htm

1.2. Scholarships from the “Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie”

If you are currently enrolled in an educational institution in your country of origin, check the web site of the Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie (www.auf.org) to see if your institution of origin is a member of the program and may present your application for a scholarship. ESSEC is a member of that program, and therefore is eligible to receive candidates wishing to study in France, provided they have successfully completed the admission procedures.

2. After admission into one of the ESSEC programs

2.1. Eiffel scholarships

These are granted by the French government to the best candidates from emerging countries. Applications may be submitted by schools only. The Office of Student Affairs at ESSEC handles the whole application procedure and provides assistance for editing CVs and professional projects. For more information, see the EGIDE (French government association) web site at www.egide.asso.fr

2.2. "Company scholarships"

Your program may benefit from companies willing to sponsor students working on field related projects (for ex. Firmenich for Luxury Brand MBA, Disneyland Paris for Hotel Management MBA, Lafarge for ESSEC MBA, etc.)

2.3. ESSEC social scholarships

These scholarships are based on the applicants' financial resources and merit. Information on application is provided at the beginning of each academic year and available to enrolled students on ESSEC extranet (MyEssec.com), using their ID and password.

2.4. Mobility scholarships

ESSEC full-time students can apply for this financial aid when going abroad (i.e. outside France) for an internship or exchange program.

This aid is granted by the "Région Ilede-France," based on the applicant's revenues. In addition, the applicant must be able to provide a French income tax statement.

For more information, see <http://www.iledefrance.fr/english/>

2.5 European Community Schemes

The European Community provides some scholarships to promote the exchange of students and academic staff within Europe, such as the SOCRATES and LEONARDO programmes. The European Commission also makes some awards to students from developing countries.

For further information: contact the European Commission office in your own country, or write to:

Eligibility: The Foundation accepts applications from countries where it has branches, affiliates or other AKDN agencies which can help with processing applications and interviewing applicants. At present, these are Bangladesh, India, Pakistan, Tajikistan, Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda, Madagascar, Syria, Iran, France, Portugal, the United Kingdom, the United States and Canada.

Selection Criteria: The main criteria for selecting award winners are: 1) excellent academic records, 2) genuine financial need, 3) admission to a reputable institution of higher learning and 4) thoughtful and coherent educational and career plans. Candidates are also evaluated on their extra-curricular interests and achievements, potential to achieve their goals and likelihood to succeed in a foreign academic environment. In addition to the above, mid-career students are evaluated on their work experience.

Financial Assistance: The Foundation assists students with tuition fees and living expenses only. The cost of travel is not included in AKF scholarships. Applicants are requested to make every effort to obtain funding from other sources as well, so that the amount requested from the Foundation can be reduced to a minimum. Preference is given to those who have been able to secure some funding from alternative sources.

Loan Conditions: Half of the scholarship amount is considered as a loan, which must be reimbursed with a 5% service charge. A guarantor is required to co-sign the loan agreement. The payback period is five years, starting six months after the study period funded by the Aga Khan Foundation.

Application Procedures: The application procedures of AKF's International Scholarship Programme are decentralised. Students may obtain application forms from Aga Khan Development Network representatives in their country of current residence. Forms are available as of 01 January each year from AKF branches and affiliates or local Aga Khan Education Services and Boards. Completed applications should be returned to the institution from which the form was obtained, or to the address typed on the front of the form. They should not be sent to Geneva. All applications must be submitted on original (not photocopied) forms obtained from an AKF or AKES office. The deadline for submission of applications is 31 March. Applicants should be prepared to be interviewed by local Scholarship Committees about their financial situation, their academic performance, extra-curricular achievements and career plans. Interview reports are sent with the applications to Geneva for the final selection. The annual Scholarship Selection Meeting takes place in late June and the Aga Khan Foundation notifies all students of the outcome of their application in the first week of July.
